TECHNICAL PROGRAM FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL IS MACHINE TECHNOLOGY/CNC.

Beginning this month as part of Shelton's Community College Month activities, the college will highlight a technical program. This month Shelton will focus on the Machine Technology/CNC program, one of the most popular programs at the college. Each month the CHRONICLE will profile one of the outstanding students in the Program of the Month. This month's Student of the Month is Tim (Bubba) Wilson of Gordo.

STUDENT OF THE MONTH PROFILE

His name is Tim Wilson but everyone calls him "Bubba." A 19-year old sophomore from Gordo, Bubba graduated from Gordo High School in May 1996 and entered Shelton's Machine Technology program that summer.

Bubba started working part-time for Phifer Wire during his freshman year. Recently he was hired by the Tuscaloosa company on a full-time basis and works the 3 - 11 p.m. shift. This keeps Bubba on a hectic schedule since he doesn't get out of class at Shelton until 2:30 p.m. each day. Living in Gordo, Bubba also has to drive back and forth each day. However, he says he really doesn't mind. "You really get use to a couple of hours of sleep each night," Bubba says.

Bubba plans on staying with Phifer now that he's working for the company full time. "They have great benefits. My sister also works at Phifer. However, I think I'll move to Tuscaloosa after graduation because of the distance," Bubba adds.

Bubba decided to enter the machine technology program originally because it looked interesting and several of his family members were already machinists. Bubba encourages other students to go into CNC/Machine Technology field. "You make good money, $9 - $11 an hour starting off. Also, the rate of pay increases pretty quickly," Bubba adds.

"Everyone I know who graduated from the program has gotten jobs. A lot of students who haven't graduated have also gotten jobs while they were still in school.

"The machine technology program is really fun. We can make anything in the CNC program. Everyday is always different," Bubba says.

For more information on Shelton's Machine Technology/CNC program, contact Ronnie Guy, ext. 2444, or Steve Fair, ext. 2441.

ISTEA

The Colleges's first ISTE (pronounced "ice tea") grant is nearing completion with the installation of sidewalks, lighting, and a sprinkler system. Approximately 55 trees along with sodding and grass seed will be planted within the next 10 days in the back of the college in an area referred to as the "Student Commons Area."

The second and third ISTE projects have been approved and submitted to the Department of Transportation for their review. We anticipate bidding this work out by late May. The second and third projects will install sprinkler systems at the Fire College and at the front of the Martin Campus. More than 200 trees will be planted and the campus will be appropriately covered with shrubbery and flowers. Flower beds will be located around the building and in the "planters" located in the parking lots. The trees were selected by Dennis Crimm, Mike Aaron and Rosemary Blethen and will include Elm, October Glory Maple, Bradford Pear, Crepe Myrtle, and Dogwoods. The grant will also provide signage and a brick entranceway at both Fire College Drive and College Boulevard.

CABARET RETURNS TO THE BAMA STAGE

This production will be the fourth staging of Cabaret by Theatre Tuscaloosa Executive Producer Paul Looney. Looney directed the show for the University of Alabama Theatre in 1979 and for Theatre Tuscaloosa in 1989.

Performances begin at the Bama Theatre on Friday, April 24, with additional performances on April 25 and 26. Public performances resume on Thursday, April 30 and continue through Sunday, May 3. Advance tickets may be purchased by calling the Theatre Tuscaloosa box office.
